

Virtual Tour of the Borghese Gallery

Tuesday 3rd September at 10.30 am on Zoom

We offered our members some very popular Zoom tours during lockdown and after, so we have arranged another virtual tour when we will return to Rome and spend time in the wonderful Borghese Gallery. This houses one of the great collections of art in the world. In the early 1600s Cardinal Scipione Borghese, nephew of Pope Paul V amassed an incredible collection of ancient sculptures and renaissance art, including works by Titian, Botticelli and Raphael as well as sculptures from Bernini and Canova. It is housed in the Villa Borghese set in a wonderful garden.

We will be led around the Gallery by Stuart Harvey who led us on a wonderful Zoom tour of the Vatican last year. Stuart has worked in educational tourism for over 30 years, leading tours all over Europe. Originally from London, he has lived in Rome for 22 years. He is a London Blue Badge Tourist Guide and also a qualified "Guida Turistica di Roma". During Covid he began online lecturing and became an accredited Arts Society lecturer in 2021.

So why don't you sit back and enjoy another trip to Rome without leaving your sofa. You will remember that Stuart undertakes his tours when the galleries are empty so it will only be us in the Gallery
The tour is Tuesday 3rd September at 10.30 am.

The cost of the visit is £ 15.00 per person

You will receive a link to join the tour nearer the time
