

Guided Tour of the rehanging at the National Gallery
Trafalgar Square, WC2N 5DN
Thursday 27th November at 10.30 am

We are fortunate enough to have arranged for Lucrezia Walker to take us on a tour of the much improved National Gallery. Join us to experience the refurbished National Gallery and enjoy the rehanging of one of the world's finest collections of Western Europe from the first masters of oil paint to the Impressionist celebrations of everyday life in 19th Century.

This will be in the company of Lucrezia who, is an expert guide, and she will take us from 1400s to 1900s via the galleries highlighting paintings. The numbers on the tour will be limited to 15.

Lucrezia is an art historian specialising in 19th- and early-20th-century French art. Lucrezia Walker lectures regularly for the National Gallery. She is Adjunct Professor at the University of North Carolina London Program where she teaches the undergraduate Art History course. She was lay canon for the Visual Arts at St Paul's Cathedral 2010-14.

The cost of the visit is £30.00 (£35.00 non-members) per person. Meeting arrangements to follow

There is a Locatelli Restaurant at the National Gallery. Look on the website on <https://locatelliatnationalgallery.co.uk/> If enough people are interested, I will book a table for us to have lunch

For further information please contact our Visits Organiser, Tamara Rabin, at visitstashh@gmail.com or on 07791 211 524.
