

Virtual Tour of Vatican and Sistine Chapel

Wednesday 4th October at 11 am on Zoom

Following the success and popularity of our Zoom tours during lockdown, TASHH has arranged a virtual tour of the Vatican and the Sistine Chapel recommended by member Janice Blackstaffe.

Professional Rome tourist guide Stuart Harvey will lead you on an unforgettable virtual tour of the Vatican Museums and the Sistine Chapel. He will focus on the highlights of the papal collection including classical Roman statues and mosaics, renaissance tapestries, the papal rooms frescoed by Raphael, culminating in the Sistine Chapel, the private chapel of the Pope, and the spectacular frescoes of the Creation and Last Judgement by Michelangelo.

Stuart has worked in educational tourism for over 30 years, leading tours all over Europe. Originally from London, he has lived in Rome for 22 years. He is a London Blue Badge Tourist Guide and also a qualified "Guida Turistica di Roma". During Covid he began online lecturing and became an accredited Arts Society lecturer in 2021.

So why don't you sit back and enjoy a trip to Rome without leaving your sofa.
The tour is Wednesday 4th October at 11 am.
